Oct, 2008

Newport Beach, California. CMS, Inc and Succession Capital Alliance jointly announce that traditional premium financing using the Capital Maximization Strategy (CMS) is stronger than ever. In spite of the credit crunch, CMS continues to increase its market share by providing access to lending programs that are stable and secure. CMS offers customized premium financing designs and credit facilities to meet the individual needs of each client. With experience that exceeds 15 years in strategic design and implementation, along with the support of 10 major life insurance carriers, CMS continues to be the 'go to company' for traditional premium financing programs. Mr. Julian Movsesian, President of both companies said, "We have been telling the story correctly for many years. As a result, traditional recourse premium financing is stronger than ever and growing." Julian further states, "When other lenders are leaving the business, our lenders continue to meet the needs of the client and their trusted advisors."
